

Grief is...

... not something to “get over” or “fix”.

... a natural response to any
loss – a person, a relationship,
security, hope, or others.

... messy and it doesn't have a timeline.

... felt and expressed in many different ways.

... something you live with
and it changes over time.

*Grief needs to be recognized, honoured,
and supported.*

